Bishop Peterkin Conducts Confirmation Services Here.

LARGE CLASSES AT ST. MATTHEW'S

And at St. Luke's on the Island and St. Paul's Chapel at Elm Grove-An Eloquent Sermon Preached Last Evening at St. Luke's-Other Church Services Yesterday, Palm Sunday.

Yesterday morning St. Matthew's church was crowded with a congrega tion to hear Rt. Rev. Bishop George W. Peterkin, of Parkersburg, and witness the ceremonies incident to the confirmation of a class of thirty-seven.

Bishop Peterkin preached a strong and appropriate sermon, taking for his taxt a passage from the fifteenth chapter of 1 Corinthians, "Be not deceived; evil communications corrupt good manners.

In the afternoon the bishop confirmed a class at St. Paul's chapel, Elm Grove. The church was crowded to overflowing.

The church was crowded to overflowing. In the evening similar exercises took place at St. Luke's church, on the Island, and the church was crowded to its utmost capacity. Many who wished to attend the services were unable to obtain admittance. Here a class of sixteen was confirmed by the bishop.

Bishop Peterkin took for his text last evening the words, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock," and around it drew an eloquent word-painting. Think, said the bishop, of the King of Kings standing at your door and saying these words—words of promise for the saving of the soul of man. By the baptismal yows just taken indifference and wrong doing are cast aside and an earnest endoing are cast aside and an earnest en-deavor to follow Christ's precepts made. Love of Christ ought to restrain us from

Love of Christ ought to restrain us from wrong. He appeals to our love, and how much there is in the Scriptures to inspire love for Him.

Christ also appeals to our fears. This is something that lately has been dropped in the preaching of Christ's word, too much. It is a reaction of the old times when fear was appealed to. old times when fear was appealed to. Now there is not enough preaching on this line. Christ also knocks at your door and heart by Ilis Church and Ilis door and heart by His Church and His providences.

Shall we not listen to the knocking at our doors and listen to His appeals? He continues standing and knocking, and the question is: How long will he continue knocking? We can't expect it to continue always. The time may come when he will not remain knocking. Warnings in this direction have been overlooked. been overlooked.

Why does he knock? Because the door is shut. Some unbelievers are dishonest in their unbelief, but others are groping honestly in the dark. When the bars of unbelief are drawn side then Christ will come in and sup with us. The bishop concluded his sermon with an eleganoutly averages there there there there is not the sermon with an eleganoutly averages. with an eloquently expressed hope that the bars will be lowered when the ex-pectation of faith will be realized.

AT WESLEY M. E. CHURCH.

A Sermon on Temperance by Rev. Mr. Roberts There Yesterday.

Yesterday being the day on which the W. C. T. U. requested the pastors of the city to preach on temperance, Rev. L. W. Roberts preached from the text, "Wine is a mocker, and strong drink is raging." After mentioning the fact that $1,000,000,000 were annually worse than wasted in this country by the drink habit, and also $0,000 souls than wasted in this country by the drink habit, and also 80,000 souls destroyed by it, he made the following destroyed by it, he made the following points:

Sin is a violation of law, whether human or divine. The offender is a sinner. Among the violations of divine law may be enumerated theft, murder, covetousness, adultery and drunkenness. All sin is bad, wheted, but some sins on account of their magnitude are capable of doing more harm, because they are more far-reaching in their influence on others than those who commit them; also because of the attitude of the people toward them. Christ, in all his teachings, tried to do the greatest good to the greatest number, and we should follow his example. All sin should be placed on an equality, and an uncompromising attitude against it is the duty promising attitude against it is the duty of all good people.

To-day we have a discriminating public sentiment in favor of drunkenness from the following reasons: 1. Whisky is said to be good in its place.

2. Wine is considered a delightful stimulant for the weak and dehilitated, and is prescribed by the physician.

-3. Beer and ale are supposed to be healthful and harmless summer drinks. 4. In some homes you will find some one of the above named drinks used freely by the young and old. Can we not see the buleful effects of

Can we not see the baleint effects of a sentiment that thus tolerates and even courts an evil? Nofe the difference between this and the other sins named. In commenting on these points the

All Broken Down

Weak, Nervous, Dizzy Spells Hood's Sarsaparilla Perfectly Curod.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"I had been in poor health for a long time.
For years my appetite was very poor. Support was my best meal, but even theu I could not sleep nights and I had to walk the thor a great deal at night. I was very nervous and had frequent dizzy spells and hendaches. I suffered with pains in my bowels.

I Did Not Thele.

I Did Not Think I Could Live three months when I decided to try Hood's Sar-saparilla for my blood. Before I had used one bottle I began to feel better and my appetite improved. I was troubled with constipation, so legroved. I was troubled with constipation, so I got a box of Hoed's Vegetable Pills. Soon I passed a knotted tape worm 25 feet long. At once the palus in my bowels ceased and though very weak, I began to pick up in appetion of the palus of partial CUYES, tite and strength. I am no longer troubled with headache or dizzy spells, and sleep soundly. I am perfectly well and work hard each day."

minister was very severe. For instance he said he would prefer a rattlesnake in his cellar to a keg of beer or wine, for the one his children would be sure to shun, but the other would entice them from the path of virtue and temperance. To prove there is a discriminating public sentiment in favor of whisky, he public sentiment in favor of whisky, he called attention to the legal attitudes of many of the states, large cities, and the United States government, in granting authority for men to sell that which is known to be an injury. Thus, under the sanction, authority and protection of the government drunkard-making is carried on and this traffic of drunkard-making is put on a ray with that of the making is put on a par with that of the gracer, etc.

We would not license or protect any We would not license or protect any other sin, such as theft, nurder, etc., but we do license the sin from which all other sins flow, or in which they have their origin. The Bible pronounces a curse on the man who putteth the bottle to his neighbor's lip. Then how will stand the account of the rum seller, or those who make it legal for him to sell rum?

But, say some, we do not license to sell. we just regulate its sale. Yes, this regulation just gives legality to drunk-ard-making. This is protection of the worst form, and all for the money there is in it.

ard-making. This is protection of the worst form, and all for the money there is in it.

He summed up the whole subject as follows: First, Drunkard-making is a sin. The Bible shows it to be a sin of the worst sort. It is a protected sin by sentiment and by laws. This being the situation, what will we do? Use moral suasion? Take a case: the church on its knees praying, "Thykingdom come"—the saloon keeper meroes the street selling rum by sanction of law. What does he care for our prayers? Take away this protection; put the business on a par with stealing, cheating, adultery: stop class legislation. When this is done prohibition is near. We must meet this question. Let us do so in the spirit of Christ.

He predicted that legal prohibition was bound to come, notwithstanding the fact that six years ago it failed to pass. He said there were enough church people in West Virginia in 1888 to carry it, and as they failed to be equal to the emergency, the churches owe it to their own action that there are open saloons in this state to-day. When the time comes that prohibition the time comes that prohibition when the time comes that prohibition when the time comes that prohibition that there are open saloons in this state to-day.

owe it to their own action that there are open saloons in this state to-day. When the time comes that prohibition wins—and come it will—let us all be sure that we are on the right side.

The sermon was heard by a large congregation. Quarterly meeting services were held last night, Presiding Elder Mick preaching to a large congregation.

REV. DR. BARNITZ HERE,

He Preaches to His Old Congregation and Sunday School.

At the English Lutheran church on Sixteenth street Rev. S. B. Barnitz, D. D., had a warm reception yesterday morning and afternoon, and the pastor, Rev. Dr. Schwarm, a splendid audience last night. The presence of Dr. Barnitz is always sufficient to bring together a large concourse of people, and especially those who knew him as he went in and out among them for a score of years. Yesterday was no exception. The silvest threads are beginning to show themselves a little among the jet black hair of the former pastor, but the strong old-time voice and vigor were the same as heretofore. Dr. Barnitz preached a Palm Sunday sermon from Matthew xxi, 5, with great earnestness and pathos, urging all who are not now doing so, to follow the King. The house was crowded even to the aisles. At the Sunday school "Home Mission and Church Extension" was the subject, and was handled so as to interest the youngest as well as the oldest in the great school.

Sermon to Colored Odd Fellows,

Sermen to Colored Odd Fellows.

Rev. Thomas Green, of Bellaire, addressed the colored Odd Fellows and their friends at the G. A. R. hall in Martin's Ferry, yesterday afternoon. Delegations were present from Wheeling, Bellaire, and Bridgeport, and the hall was filled to its utmost. All enjoyed the talk. The parade was a creditable one and attracted much attention. The prominent feature of this was the Uniformed Rank of Wheeling.

THE PARISH HOUSE. st. Luke's Memorial Building Opened Saturday Evening.

The opening and benediction of the Florence V. Brittingham memorial parish house, on the Island, occurred Saturday ovening, and was an auspicious event, attended by most of the members of the St. Luke's congregation. A pleasing feature was the appearance of the vested choir, which rendered a number of selections satisfactorily. It was 7:30 o'clock when the clergy, choir, wardens and vestrymen of the parish proceeded from the lower to the upper room of the parish house, and a very impressive scene it made. The exercises were conducted by Rt. Rev. Bishop George W. Peterkin, who was assisted by Rev. Brittingham, of St. Luke's, and Rev. Dr. R. Rush Swope, of St. Mathew's church, Rev. Woods, of Wellsburg, and Rev. Burbank, of Bellaire and Mattin's Ferry. Yesterday afternoon at the hall of the Ohio Valley Trade and Labor Assembly, a well attended meeting of the delegates selected by the United Mine Workers' organization's of the Pan Handle, was held, at which officers for the ensuing term were selected. The meeting was remarkable for the unanimity of opinion of the delegates, and this was shown in the good selections made for the various offices in the gift of the dolegates, particularly in the choice of a president, to which office Jerry Mead, of this city, was elected.

Following is the new roster: President-Jerry Mead, of Wheeling Vice President-A. D. Muter, of Glen-

INCREASED EQUIPMENT.

Wheeling Railway Company to Buy Sum-mer Cars-

The Wheeling Railway Company is negotiating with the Brilles Car Company, of Philagelphia, for eight summer cars to be put on their line, and the contract will be closed probably in a few days. The intention is to place summer cars entirely on the road this summer. Formerly the Island and Martin's Ferry runs have had the closed cars both winter and summer. The eight additional summer cars will give the line an equipment of 17 of that style, about enough for the entire line. Work will be started at once getting the open cars in shape and they will be put on cars in shape and they will be put on about April 15.
